The American Red Cross . . . The Good Neighbor

A good neighbor is a reliable friend. . . always there when you need him, always willing and able to help. In the way that you need to be helped. . . with information, advice, or direct emergency aid. It could be a personal problem. . .a family difficulty. . . or a full fledged disaster. Whatever the situation, you know you can depend on your neighbor. You know that comfort, care and competence are available always. That's the Red Cross . . . everybody's Good Neighbor!
